

Curriculum Vitae

Dag Henning Jacobsen

January 2009

Education and degrees

- 2002 MSc in Economics (Cand. Oecon), University of Oslo
- 1996 Undergraduate studies in History (mellomfag), University of Oslo

Employment

- 2006- Senior Economist, Norges Bank (Central Bank of Norway)
- 2004-2006 Economist, Norges Bank (Central Bank of Norway)
- 2002-2004 Trainee, Norges Bank (Central Bank of Norway)

Field of interest

- Primary Housing market, the financial accelerator, applied macroeconometrics
- Secondary Monetary policy

Working papers

- "The Financial Accelerator: Using a procedure of Structural Model Design", with Roger Hammersland. Discussion Papers No. 569, Statistics Norway
- "The role of house prices in the monetary policy transmissin in the U.S", with Hilde C. Bjørnland. Norges Bank Working paper 2008/24

Other publications

- "Housing investment and house prices", with Kristin Solberg-Johansen and Kjersti Haugland. Economic Bulletin 1/2007, Norges Bank
- "Measuring and predicting household housing wealth", with Tor O. Berge, Kjersti-Gro Lindquist, Katrine Godding Boye and Marita Skjæveland. IFC Bulletin, No 26, 2007, BIS
- "What influences the number of bankruptcies?", with Thea Birkeland Kloster. Economic Bulletin 4/2005, Norges Bank

- "The Tobin tax: Perspectives from microstructure finance" (in Norwegian), with Dagfinn Rime. Økonomisk Forum 5/2005
- "What drives house prices?", with Bjørn E. Naug. Economic Bulletin 1/2005, Norges Bank
- "What influences the growth of household debt?", with Bjørn E. Naug. Economic Bulletin 3/2004, Norges Bank
- "Sand in the machinery or in the eyes of the Tobin-tax proponents?", with Dagfinn Rime. In Vill valuta, en debattbok om tobinskatten, (Nina Drange and Linn Stalsberg, eds.), ATTAC Norway, 2002

Personal

- Born 1975
- Nationality: Norwegian