

Form accompanying banks' delivery of banknotes that have been dyed as a result of an accident during packing or transport (adjusted April 2009)

Name of bank delivering notes:	Date:
Address of bank delivering notes:	Telephone:
Delivering bank's account number in Norges Bank:	Form completed by:
Transport company (name / address):
Recipient's name and address for invoicing of charge:
Amount delivered, by denomination: 1000-krone notes _____ (number) = NOK _____ 500-krone notes _____ (number) = NOK _____ 200-krone notes _____ (number) = NOK _____ 100-krone notes _____ (number) = NOK _____ 50-krone notes _____ (number) = NOK _____ Total NOK _____
No. of enclosures:	(number)

DELIVERY OF NOTES DYED AS A RESULT OF AN ACCIDENT
On delivery the notes shall have been dried and counted to permit efficient further inspection and treatment. Norges Bank invoices NOK 5 000 per case. A special charge will be applied for extra work-intensive cases. Charges will not normally be made for individual cases involving up to 250 notes.
1.	Are the notes dyed as a result of an accident at the hands of the transporter ¹ or in the bank? (circle the correct answer)	Transp.	Bank
2.	What kind of dye was used to stain the banknotes?
3.	Describe the course of events (when / where / how the suspicious notes were dyed etc.):

The above information is confirmed (authorised person at delivering bank or transporter according to authorisation): Date / sig.:

¹ Pursuant to Norges Bank's rules for delivery of notes that may be part of money laundering of the proceeds of a crime, transporter may obtain authorisation from the delivering bank to fill in this form. Authorisations should be sent to Norges Bank, Att. Cashier's Department.